

CAREER PLANNING

Spend 30 minutes answering the 9 questions below. Don't overthink your responses. Be as honest as you can be when answering the questions; it will lead to a better outcome. Best practice is to start with Past, then move to Present and then on to Future.

PAST

- What are my greatest talents?
- What is my greatest character strength?
- What is one professional area I need to develop?

PRESENT

- What is my primary career interest?
- What am I spending time on that will help me get to my goal?
- What am I spending time on that will prevent me from getting to my goal?

FUTURE

- Where do I want to be in 5 years?
- What steps should I take now to help contribute to my long term goal?
- What skills, knowledge or experience do I need to acquire?
